

Dear USCF Member,

Some of you have contacted us about late delivery of your May copy of Chess Life. This mailing was the first time that we utilized a new delivery method that allows us to save 10% off our significantly high mailing costs. Most of you should not have noticed a difference in delivery time; unfortunately, some of you may have received your copy a little later than you are used to.

If you look at the below chart, you will see on what date the postal distribution center nearest you received your copy of the magazine. In most cases, it should not take more than 2-3 days for your magazine to arrive in your mailbox after your distribution center receives it. If that is not the case, you should contact your local postmaster.

One other possibility that can affect your delivery date is not reflected on the chart below. If you renewed your membership close to the mail date, your copy is shipped in a separate mailing and will be received later than indicated below.

Sincerely,

Daniel Lucas
USCF Director of Publications
